The Business Meeting on Friday will have its own Zoom link and passcode, separate from what is used for the Workshop-Retreat. To access the Business Meeting on Zoom, go to the Business Meeting page, and the Zoom info will appear in the right sidebar.

For future reference, there is a link to the Business Meeting page on the Program page for the Workshop-Retreat. On the Program page, scroll down to the Business Meeting section, and you'll see it.

Only members may attend the business meeting. You must be logged in as a Member to access the Business Meeting page. See this page to join the T. F. Torrance Fellowship. There is no membership cost for students. Members: here's how to log-in if you have forgotten your password. Tip: Update your member profile before the event (how to).

There's still time to register...

- Opening address by Andrew Purves.
- Presentations by Jenny Richards, Stavan John, Stephen Lorange, Margaret Stein, Jock Stein, and Marty Folsom, with commentary by Jerome van Kuiken and Myk Habets.

- Panel discussion: Trends in Torrance Studies – Myk Habets, Jerome van Kuiken, Kerry Magruder.

Follow two steps to access Zoom Workshop sessions:

1. Log in to the Fellowship website using a member password or guest pass. If you are not a member, a guest pass will be sent to you when you register.
2. A Zoom link will appear on the web pages for each event once you are logged in.

Cost is free. Registration is required. Free Zoom account required.

To register, please send an email to workshop-retreat@tftorrance.org containing the following information.

1. Name
2. City and Country
3. Email address
4. Do you already have a member log-on for the TFT Fellowship website?
5. Would you like a guest pass to log on instead?*

6. Do you give us permission to include your email address on the Participants List? **

* Except for the business meeting, you do not need to be a member to participate in the Workshop-Retreat. Registered non-member participants will be given a Guest Pass to log-in. A log-in to the TFT Fellowship website is required: either a member log-in or a guest pass.

 The Workshop-Retreat Participants List requires a website log-on to view; it is not on the open internet. Displaying your email address is completely optional. The reason email addresses may be included on the list is to facilitate back-channel communication during breaks and mealtimes, and after the event. For those who are members, the Participants List also links to member profile pages which indicate research interests, institutions, personal or professional websites, etc. If there is any additional information you want included (such as affiliation or title) on the Participants List, just let us know. If you are a member, feel free to update your member profile (or ask us to help you create one).

T. F. Torrance Fellowship Annual Keynote and Meeting
